Baybars Altuntas
JCI Ambassador

Re: 2015 JCI World Congress

Dear JCI Ambassador Baybars Altuntas,

We hope this message finds you well. On behalf of over 8,000 delegates, we would like to thank you for your participation and support during the recent 2015 JCI World Congress in Kanazawa, Japan.

Your involvement and contribution during the World Congress brought a unique and valuable perspective for our members. As you know, the young active citizens of JCI are working in nearly 120 countries to unite all sectors of society to create sustainable impact. By hosting Startup Compass, JCI members were able to learn valuable skills for enhance economic empowerment. We greatly appreciate you taking the time to join us and sharing your knowledge.

We are happy to say that we concluded the World Congress with the adoption of the Kanazawa Declaration, a Declaration for our members, which is inspired by the celebration of the JCI 100th Anniversary and the desire to advance the JCI Mission into the next 100 years. Therefore the delegates pledged to adopt the Global Goals and mobilize awareness, identify the Global Goals relevant to their own communities and accept their responsibility to monitor the progress of the Global Goals. As JCI moves into the next 100 years of impact and a new era in global development, this declaration positions JCI as a vital player in creating a better and more sustainable world. The full resolution is also attached.

As we continue to create a better world, we hope you will continue to be a part of our endeavors. If you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact us at sg@jci.cc. Once again, we thank you for your invaluable contributions to make the 2015 JCI World Congress a success.

Sincerely yours,

Ismail Haznedar
